Unnatural History.

The Bottle of Hair Tonic was in a self congratulatory mood. "Well," it boasted, "I think I can tell 'hair raising' ghost stories if any one can."

The coy Peach was very angry as well as "stirred up" when the house-keeper ladled her into the preserve jar. "Now, wouldn't that jar you!" she exclaimed, rather slangy.

The False Tooth spoke with icy hauteur: "I belong to the 'upper set.'" "Possibly," retorted the bottled Kite incisively, "but let it be distinctly understood that I myself move in the highest circles."

The cracked piece of pseudo antique China spoke frankly: "Of course I'm not what I'm 'cracked up' to be!" Then her femininity asserted itself, and she finished coyly, "But I'm not nearly as old as I look."

The angry Stick of Giant Powder stormed at the proud patrician Tack. "You have a 'big head' because you have laid a few carpets low." The Tack was silent. "I'm supreme," boasted the Powder, waxing bold. "No one can 'hold a candle' to me, and every one is afraid to 'blow me up.'" "Well," retorted the Tack pointedly, at the same time striking a match, "nobody can walk over a member of the Tack family with impunity."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 14, 1900

FOOLISHNESS SHOULD CEASE.

There continues to be more or less discussion over a reorganization of the Democratic party. What does it mean? should be a question in the mind of each Democrat until it is hunted down and assigned to the place where it had its origin, which is in the sloughs of imperialism. Reorganization includes a change in some particular. Could the nature of the change sought by the enemies of the party be learned, it might be discussed and the fallacies in it made known to Democrats and others who continue to love the republic.

A reorganization of the party in any manner respecting its principles will be an admission that Jefferson and all Democrats who have lived in the last hundred years were in error respecting Democracy, or that those who are now seeking reorganization err. The truth about the latter no Democrat would have to go out of the way to ascertain. If there is a man now living who has taught pure Democracy to the people, that man is William Jennings Bryan. The chief trouble with Bryan has been and continues to be his pure democracy. There is too much of it for the times. It is wherever Bryan goes and everywhere he does not go. His democracy includes the earth and mankind, which is democracy in most ample form.

Bryan's democracy includes the faith possessed by Jefferson and the republican fathers in man's ability for self government. It also includes a universal love for man in his many and varied conditions that would labor to bring him up to a higher plane of civilization, through a continued application of the law of human kindness. Any change in such exalted political relations of a party to the people would not be for their benefit, nor would it be a change that would meet the approval of those who believe that government should be a result of the consent of the governed.

It is quite evident that the simple democracy of Jefferson and republicans in 1776 has become antiquated, in the opinion of many, who would not only like to prescribe rules for the direction of the party, but they desire to furnish for its future contention principles that accord more with modern ideals of imperialism and a monarchical system.

The party will not only reject any innovation upon its time honored principles, but it will reject the men who make an attempt to change its principles. When it is known that reorganization will not be tolerated, is it not about time to cease the nonsense which has been indulged in by some people and by some newspapers that should know better than to entertain seriously that which is not possible at this time?

SOMETHING UNUSUAL.

Salisbury of England is of the opinion that the United States is in line with British ideas upon the subject of civilization which means hold all you get and get all you can of the earth's surface for the purpose of securing opportunity for exploitation of capital by making subject the inferior races for the advantage of those who enslave them after modern ideas of slave trade culture. The business is conducted under the head of civilization which is the only name that can be given it to secure success in the work of civilization through a slave system.

Lord Salisbury is of the opinion that England and the United States will continue a policy of civilization after the modern system for the next four years, which will likely be as my lord says regarding the policy of both England and this country. When has it been since 1776 that a Lord Mayor's dinner in London was made an occasion by Englishmen to manifest satisfaction over a result in national politics in the United States, till a few days ago when Salisbury made it an opportunity to express his delight over the success of the Republican party? At no time within the history of the United States has it occurred till last week.

All men possessed of humane feeling would like to see the governments and the people of Great Britain and the United States on the most friendly and social terms, but the systems of government in form and in purpose are very different and the difference should be maintained by the United

TWO MORAL DEGENERATES.

Also for poor Schwartz, and alas for poor Guel.

They have gotten themselves in a horrible mess.

For marching along in the sacred track

Of our lord and master, Wallace the Black,

Beating boom-a-de-boom and rat-a-tat-too

On a big bass drum, and a snare drum, too.

To do so was bass—ab, a drum is a snare.

To catch the poor erring ones, lest they beware.

Then did Johnny get his gun— Not a schkoot-gun,

But a Lo-gau; Sent for Stewart, the beardless one.

"Guilty ye are, beggars," says Linn, "Pay your fines or I'll run yez in!"

Several moons shall wax and wane; Many a snow shall fall, and rain;

A couple of backs shall ache and pain, Ere Schwartz and Gus are free again.

With the chain gang they will sleep, Eating hardtacks;

Fighting graybacks; Digging sewers for their keep.

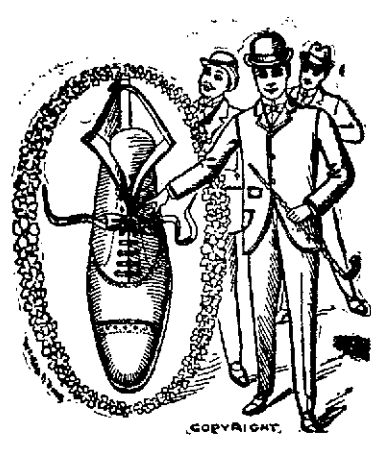

They Struck It Rich.

It was a grand thing for this community that such an enterprising firm as S. J. Hodgkinson secured the agency for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, the wonderful remedy that has startled the world by its marvelous cures. The furor of enthusiasm over it has boomed their business, as the demand for it is immense. They give free trial bottles to sufferers, and positively guarantee it to cure Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, and all Throat and Lung Troubles. A trial proves its merit. Price 50¢ and $1.00

HAPPENINGS IN NEVADA

News of All the Counties in the State Clipped From Exchanges.

Two new mail cars with the latest improvements, have been placed on the run between San Francisco and Ogden.

Frank Harmer, who was injured at Eureka last week by a premature explosion, will, it is believed, recover the sight of both eyes.

The body of Charles Hocker was found about three miles east of Beowawe last Sunday, near the railroad track, badly mangled, the skull being fractured and the arms and legs broken. Death was probably caused by a passing train.

While engaged in holding a pow-wow near the Indian school an Indian by the name of Pete Loungbaugh was shot in the head by a fellow tribesman. The wounded Indian will probably recover while his would be murderer has escaped into the mountain fastnesses.

Guilty as Charged.

J. B. Schweitzer and Gus Hoffman were tried yesterday before Justice Linn on the charge of disturbing the peace, namely, beating the "Rogue's March" at the heels of the Black Boss on election day. No evidence was introduced by the defense and the defendants were found guilty as charged. They were directed to appear for sentence at 9 this morning.

No Truth in It.

A rumor has been going the rounds of the press to the effect that two mortgages on the Sierra Valley railroad, held by the Southern Pacific company, are about to be foreclosed. General Manager Bowen of the S. V. R. R. informed a JOURNAL reporter yesterday that the rumor is incorrect.

Football Returns.

The first of the inter-collegiate football games will be played to-day. The JOURNAL will receive bulletins and a complete report of the game at 5 o'clock.

Smelter Meeting.

A meeting of the trustees of the Reno Milling and Smelting Company will be held to-day. Affairs are shaping themselves so that the smelter will probably resume inside of a month.

May Resist the Allies.

Special to the JOURNAL.

It is learned that some money will be spent this winter developing the claims. California capital is back of the enterprise.

You're a Jolly Joshar.

The JOURNAL highly compliments the Republican County Central Committee of Washoe county. The News for some time has had grave suspicions that something was the matter with that committee and the commendation of a Democrat newspaper was all that was needed to confirm it.—Oroton News.

Smelter Meeting.

from her stomach, but she tried Elec-

A LETTER FROM ELKO

A Journal Correspondent Takes
the Center of the Stage.

ELKO, Nev., Nov. 10, 1900.
I see that Patrick L. Flanigan continues to write over his sig. so that the few readers of the Gazette can know that tho' dead he can still bray. They do not want to admit defeat. Money, of course money was used, and if any person knows anything about money being used it must be Pat. He brought it here from Hanna's treasury, and again, to add to that, he assessed all the sheepmen as much as he thought they would stand. If that was not to buy votes, what was it for? Was it to buy more sheep for Pat? Everything that they do is fair and legitimate, and what the Democrats do is all wrong.
He says Newlands' large vote in Washoe over Farrington shows that money was used—as shown by Bryan's 12 majority.
How about Elko? In this precinct Bryan received 100 majority and Farrington 61. How would Pat account for that?
At Toiyabe Bryan received 140 majority and Farrington ran 14 ahead of his ticket. How could Pat explain that? The "honest vote in Washoe county was cast in the precinct of Hofifers and also Salt Marsh. There no money was used." He says those were honest because they were Republican.
What's the matter with our precincts of Wielands and Jack Creek? In those precincts there could be no money used and the only persons who tried to influence them were Republican orators, especially at Wieland's. Chanderler, Norcross "the Great," Farrington, Coffin and the R. R. strikers—Doughty (did he work for love)? They all "spieled" at this precinct, and the party they were bired for received one vote in each precinct. Those speakers held forth at Reno and after hearing their harangue how could the people vote other than they did? Mr. Pat can explain nothing away. It was honesty against deception, fraud, Stewart, Wallace, et al. and in Nevada the former won. Where is the JOURNAL's "burner"?
Pat is easy. Why don't he burn him up? SILVERITE.

PERSONAL MENTION.

lic as They Come and Go.

Michels in Carson.

Willow Glen cyanide works yesterday.

torney, had business in Reno yester-

ness trip to Virginia yesterday.
Rev. F. Vernon Jones returned yesterday from San Francisco, where he gational church.

Johnny's Crew Were Unco Fu'.

In yesterday's JOURNAL appeared a vivid description of celestial fireworks that failed to work. They didn't materialize. They were a complete fizzle.
In order that the JOURNAL should not be accused in the master of the prophesied pyrotechnics, the article in question was written and put in type early in the evening.
Either the Virginia Report man actually saw a meteoric display and, on the principle that great minds run in the same channel, wrote it up in the JOURNAL's identical language, or—perish the thought—the exchange editor took a nip too many, thought he saw the stars fall and clipped the JOURNAL item.
In support of the latter hypothesis
we clip the following from last night's Report:
"The growler was rushed to death
last night."

IRRIGATION MATTERS

Congressmen Newlands Interest- ed in a Vital Prob- lem.

Congressman Newlands will leave in a few days for Chicago, where he will sit as a delegate from Nevada in the National Irrigation Congress.
The time is becoming ripe for securing government aid to construct an experimental storage reservoir in this State, which would mean the irrigation of vast arid valleys whose rich, deep soil, with the aid of water, would give sustenance to thousands of people.
Nevada has neither harbors to construct nor navigable rivers to dredge.
It has therefore a right to expect appropriations which in other States are expended upon waterways.
Public sentiment is all that is needed to make Congressman Newlands' efforts to secure appropriations for this purpose possible. He will doubtless take an active part in the deliberations of this congress in Chicago, which will comprise delegates from all sections of the Mississippi valley and mountain regions.

LITTLE LOCAL BREVITIES

Items of Street and Town too Brief for Separate Heads.

Another carload of Reno Star ore
will be shipped to-day.
Charles F. Mickel has recovered from a severe attack of pneumonia.
General Turrittin gained five votes
by the official count in Storey county.
The Palace hotel orchestra was augmented by a mandolinist and guitar player yesterday.
A section foreman was killed between Beowawe and Cluro Tuesday night by being struck by a train.
"To reincorporate or not"—that is a question which is liable to pop up before the legislators assemblies.
General assembly will be held in the gymnasium this afternoon at 3 o'clock.
Address will be given by George D.
Qaong. Subject: "Life in China."

What A Tale It Tells.

Many Things Are Meant
By many dealers who claim to handle groceries. When they advertise GOOD GROCERIES no mention is made of PRICE. When price is mentioned QUALITY IS OVERLOOKED. Again, sometimes they dwell on the virtues of a LARGE STOCK. In this case no claim is made to carrying FRESH GOODS.

We Preach the Three Main Virtues of Groceries—Quality
Quantity
Price
They are mentioned in their regular order and the happy combination is causing hosts of pleased patrons at our store.
